SC WORKERS' COMPENSATION ATTORNEY

Were you injured while on your job?

When should I report an injury to my employer?

Please report your injury to your employer and request medical treatment, if necessary, immediately.

My employer has not filed a claim for me, may I file a claim?

Yes, it is possible to file a personal claim.

How will I be compensated for time missed from work?

Once your employer receives notice or has knowledge of an injury, your employer has 10 days to report that injury to the South Carolina Worker's Compensation Commission. The Commission is responsible for monitoring compensation provided by your employer or its insurance carrier.
